Volunteers to make repairs to Oakland County homes

Published : Saturday, 27 Apr 2013, 4:03 AM EDT

SOUTHFIELD, Mich. (AP) — More than 1,000 volunteers are expected to make improvements Saturday to 45 homes in Southfield and 11 other Oakland County communities.

The event is part of Rebuilding Together Oakland County's annual Rebuild Day.

Saint Alexander Church has recruited the volunteers, while Hanson's Windows is donating new windows. Sears Hero's at Home are installing the windows and helping with other costs.

The work also will include minor indoor repairs and construction of wheelchair ramps.

The nonprofit Rebuilding Together Oakland County works with volunteers on the yards and houses of low-income homeowners who are elderly, disabled, or military veterans and unable to do the work themselves.
